BRANDON BAKER

AIRBORNE SYSTEMS ENGINEER

1920 Farnam Street
Apt 458, Omaha NE 68102

bbaker13@fordham.edu

213-923-0160

SUMMARY

Active-duty philosophy major with experience and interest in cybersecurity, investigations and threat intelligence. Graduate of Fordham University's Rose Hill college. Seeking work in intelligence and security. Perceptive, patient, and outgoing.

EDUCATION —

Fordham University
Liberal Arts
B.A. in philosophy with a double minor in computer science and cybersecurity.
Class of 2021 with a GPA of 3.25

Palos Verdes Peninsula H.S.
Graduated 2017
Graduated class of 2017 with a weighted GPA of 4.22

Southern California
Regional Occupational Center
Completed 2016
Learned the repair and mechanics of standard automotive engines and basic automobile systems.

SKILLS —

Programming
C++, Java, limited HTML
Security
Command Line (MS/Linux), server setup and log events, basic networking
Design
Photoshop, FL Studio

PAID EXPERIENCE

March 2022 – Present
Airborne Systems Engineer • United States Air Force
   Enlisted aircrew specializing in airborne maintenance, intelligence collection, and signals analysis.

October 2021 – March 2022
IT Project Coordinator • Tower Legal Solutions
   Provided customer IT solutions, coordinated the setup and shipment of client computer systems.

April 2019 – May 2021
Information Security Intern • Fordham University
   Assisted with analysis, fact gathering, and investigations. Performed vulnerability assessments for specific applications and services, as well as handled user reports as required.

June 2018 – August 2018
Instructor • iDTech Camps
   Instructed students in Java, video game development, and foundational computer science and logic.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

2016 – 2017
Recruitment and Outreach • Al Muratsuchi Campaign
   Handled day to day operations. Campaigned through cold-calls and door to door outreach. Recruited and managed new interns.